Kerry Ricardo Jr. Mollineau, was born on July 18th, 1985. After completing his Primary Level Education at Newtown boys school, Kerry attended Mucurapo Junior Secondary School and then Senior Comprehensive where he studied carpentry as a trade. Kerry has always been driven by a passion for creativity, hard work, and connection with people from all walks of life. Growing up in Woodbrook, he developed a strong grassroots foundation, interacting with a diverse community that shaped his worldview and aspirations.

Inspired by the resilience and ingenuity of his mother, Lisa Mollineau, a renowned Carnival Mas maker with accolades for her craft, Kerry was exposed to vibrant cultures and the intricate artistry of event planning from an early age. Traveling alongside her gave him an appreciation for the meticulous coordination and creativity required to deliver unforgettable entertainment experiences.

Kerry began his professional journey in 2005 at Studio Express (formerly Disc Express), starting as an office assistant under the mentorship of Zakri Esau. His disciplined work ethic and enthusiasm for the entertainment industry propelled him through the ranks, leading him to his current role as Production Manager at Studio Express. Over the years, he has cultivated a reputation for excellence and dependability, becoming a trusted figure in the field. Currently, Mr. Kerry Mollineau/Studio Express holds a permanent contract with Level 9 Advertising Agency Limited.

In addition to his studio work, Kerry's entrepreneurial spirit led him to establish his own company, Mr. Make It which entails Artiste Bookings, Road Management and Event Planning. This initiative reflects his commitment to empowering others, particularly young people. His mission is to inspire the next generation to overcome challenges and achieve their dreams.

Kerry has also worked closely with prominent musical artists, building a loyal client base and showcasing his ability to adapt to the industry's dynamic demands. Notably, he served as the road manager for Olatunji Yearwood in 2012, Kevon Heath "Yankey Boy", and numerous artistes. His leadership, coupled with his unwavering dedication to professionalism, has earned him respect throughout the entertainment industry.

Guided by the mantra, "Don't fear the gap between your dreams and reality," Kerry Mollineau is a testament to perseverance and purpose. His journey is a source of inspiration, proving that with passion and determination, success is always within reach.
