

DA VOICE BOX PRODUCTIONS – Shane Gibson MACP, MBA [Representative]

Shane Gibson is a highly effective and passionate Culture Change Specialist. He is dedicated to transforming entire organizations and the individuals within through comprehensive assessments, data informed consulting, supplemented by executive coaching, performance training, and therapeutic interventions. With over a decade of experience, Shane specializes in guiding leaders and teams through impactful cultural transformations that are strategically aligned with organizational goals, ensuring long-term success and growth.

Shane's multi-disciplinary educational background includes an undergraduate degree in Business Management from the University of West Indies; a Masters degree in Counselling Psychology from the Caribbean Nazarene College; an MBA in Human Resource Management from the University of Bedfordshire, augmented by a diverse list of behavioural science certifications including leadership psychology and change management. Shane has successfully engaged organizations in the public, private and religious sectors who have been able to meet and exceed success metrics established at the beginning of engagement which include increased employee commitment, productivity, and revenue.

Rizon – BIOGRAPHY (pronounced "rise on") Shane Gibson, more popularly known as Rizon is a multi-award-winning artiste and is recognized as one of the premiere inspirational/gospel music ministers to come out of the Caribbean region. Shane has been a member of COTT as both a writer and publisher since 2006. Over the past 18 years, music ministry has taken Rizon to stages and platforms around the world where he has established himself in the industry as a uniquely radiant force.